REGION

Hunter Valley - New South Wales

Australia's most famous Semillon region is also our most visited wine region. The first vines were planted in the 1820s by families whose names live on in some of the best wine brands in the country.

Nestled among the majestic Brokenback Range and cooled by ocean breezes, the Hunter Valley lies approximately two hours' drive north of Sydney.

WINERY

Audrey Wilkinson

Audrey Wilkinson Vineyard and Cellar Door is one of the oldest wineries in the Hunter Valley wine region. The 270-acre vineyard is named after one of Australia's early wine pioneers.

Audrey Wilkinson planted the first vines in Pokolbin in 1866 and was an early innovator in the production of fine wine. Audrey's legacy of 'It's all about the taste' is at the centre of everything the award-winning winery continues to do.

Set on the crest of a hill, the cellar door has 360-degree views of the picturesque patchwork of vines and paddocks of the Hunter Valley. Find a spot on the expansive veranda, relax and enjoy a bottle of wine or
