

MONTALTO VINEYARD & OLIVE GROVE

REGION

Mornington Peninsula - Victoria

Tucked in amongst the orchards, olive groves and vineyards of the Mornington Peninsula, over 50 wineries have opened their doors to offer the region's famous Pinot Noir and Chardonnays at elegant cellar doors and restaurants.

Located on the eastern side of Port Phillip Bay and within an hour's drive of Melbourne, the peninsula is also famous for its seaside villages, world-class golf courses, spa retreats and local produce, which you can buy at bustling markets, farm gates, or pick-your-own-produce farms.

The Mornington Peninsula is suited to wine growing for its natural topography and mild climate. Its vines thrive in sheltered undulating valleys surrounded by water on three sides.
