

TAHBILK

REGION

Nagambie Lakes - Victoria

The Nagambie Lakes region is known for its picturesque habitats of tall, shady red river gums and tranquil views of the Goulburn River and surrounding wetlands.

Located just 90 minutes from Melbourne, Nagambie Lakes is a truly relaxing destination where visitors can enjoy premium wines, pristine habitat and quaint towns filled with cafes, local produce stores, antique shops and galleries.

The terroir is well suited to viticulture and the region experiences a cooler and more moderate climate than might first be expected, due to the influence of the many lakes and lagoons to be found throughout. It is the only Australian wine region, and one of only six worldwide, where the meso-climate is dramatically influenced by inland water mass.
