

LEEWIN ESTATE

REGION

Margaret River - Western Australia

Geographically isolated and spectacular, Margaret River specialises in memorable regional cuisine and spectacular scenery, where rolling vineyards sit against a backdrop of ocean and forest.

Margaret River's ideal climate, good soil and maritime environment produce consistently superior vintages that confirm its reputation as one of the premium wine producing regions of the world.

Located in the far south-west corner of Western Australia, the region is a popular wine destination in a rugged natural setting. As well as its 155 wineries, Margaret River has a vibrant food scene with fine restaurants, boutique breweries, art galleries and fresh produce.

WINERY

Leeuwin Estate

Leeuwin Estate is a family winery that celebrates fine wine, food and its long association with the arts.

The estate has earned an international reputation for producing outstanding wines, an award-winning restaurant, serviced boardroom and private airstrip. Visitors are welcome to tour the winemaking process and sample the wines.

Wine Varieties

Chardonnay, Cabernet Sauvignon, Shiraz, Riesling, Sauvignon Blanc, Semillon

The Leeuwin "Art Series" wine labels have become famous. Wander through the estate's art gallery to see the more than 100 paintings from Australia's leading contemporary artists that have been commissioned to feature on the labels.
