

PENFOLDS MAGILL ESTATE

REGION

Adelaide Hills - South Australia

The Adelaide Hills region is known for its elegant cool climate wines. Located in the Mount Lofty Ranges 20 minutes east of Adelaide, the region is Australia's largest geographical wine region, and one of the most diverse in terms of climate, soil and topography.

The region's coolest areas are suited to Chardonnay and Pinot Noir varieties and produce renowned sparkling and table wines. In warmer areas Riesling, Sauvignon Blanc and Pinot Gris are successful.

Tour the region to experience its spectacular combination of winding roads, quaint villages, apple and cherry orchards, and roadside produce.

WINERY

Penfolds Magill Estate

This historic and heritage-protected vineyard was established in 1844 by Dr Christopher Rawson and Mary Penfold. First planted with Grenache from cuttings taken from the South of France it would go on to inspire and supply fruit for Penfolds Grange.

The wines were initially prescribed as tonics for anaemic patients and the famous Penfolds slogan '1844 to evermore' harks back to its origins.

Wine Varieties

Chardonnay, Shiraz, Pinot Noir, Riesling

Penfolds has attracted a strong international following, and regularly wins gold medals and gold class awards at Australian wine shows and world wine awards.

Join the wine education team for a tasting of Penfolds' famous labels, see the vineyard where the Grange story started, and dine on South Australian produce in the award-winning restaurant.
