

SEPPELTSFIELD

REGION

Barossa Valley - South Australia

The famous Barossa wine region has a long history of making full-bodied reds, fortified and robust white wines. As well as its 70+ wineries, the Barossa is home to award-winning restaurants, stone churches and heritage buildings, in a uniquely Australian landscape of gum trees and vineyards.

The Barossa's winemaking and grape growing heritage dates back to 1842, when the first vines were planted by European immigrants. Today the region is home to sixth-generation winemakers who work with some of the world's oldest vines, as well as a dynamic community of artisan food producers.

WINERY

Seppeltsfield

With a proud legacy dating back to 1851, Seppeltsfield is an iconic Australian wine estate. Its rich heritage is an inherent part of any visit to the magnificent estate. The winery and village restoration is true to the vision of the founders Joseph and son Benno Seppelt and the historic Gravity Flow Winery, built into the hillside on a series of terraces, is back in use. You can call in at the cooperage to see barrels being made, explore the heritage gardens, or sample German-style beer or cordial at the traditional kiosk in the picnic grounds.

Wine Varieties

Cabernet Sauvignon, Grenache, Shiraz, Touriga, Sangiovese, Nero Davalo and Palomino

Seppeltsfield is the only winery in the world to release a 100-year-old, single vintage wine each year. It is famous for its Centennial Collection - an unbroken lineage of Tawny of every vintage from 1878 to the current year.
