

VASSE FELIX

REGION

Margaret River - Western Australia

Geographically isolated and spectacular, Margaret River specialises in memorable regional cuisine and spectacular scenery, where rolling vineyards sit against a backdrop of ocean and forest.

Margaret River's ideal climate, good soil and maritime environment produce consistently superior vintages that confirm its reputation as one of the premium wine producing regions of the world.

Located in the far south-west corner of Western Australia, the region is a popular wine destination in a rugged natural setting. As well as its 155 wineries, Margaret River has a vibrant food scene with fine restaurants, boutique breweries, art galleries and fresh produce.

WINERY

Vasse Felix

Vasse Felix was established in 1967 and is Margaret River's founding wine Estate. Founder Dr Tom Cullity searched the region relentlessly for his first vineyard site, before selecting 8 acres in Wilyabrup, which today remains at the heart of the Vasse Felix Estate.

All winemaking from vine to bottle is controlled

Wine Varieties

Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay, Semillon, Sauvignon Blanc and Shiraz within the Estate. Fruit is harvested, fermented and matured in small, separate parcels before each barrel is graded, trial blended and allocated to its final wine.

Everyone is welcome to visit the Vasse Felix Estate, which is regarded as one of Australia's draw-card winery destination experiences and includes a restaurant, cellar door and art gallery.
